Essay (choose only one)

1. Our mission at Viewpoint is to create exceptional readiness for extraordinary futures by cultivating the critical skill set, courageous mindset, and resilient identity of each individual Viewpoint student. The values by which we live this mission are love, honor, excellence, imagination, and optimism. Tell us about an event or activity in your life that was positively impacted by your acting on one or more of these values. How did it create a change in your life or in the way you think?
2. Everybody has a unique set of character skills that they develop over time, which affect the way they think, feel, and behave, and which help them overcome challenges. A few examples are things like cooperation, open-mindedness, curiosity, initiative, integrity, teamwork, kindness toward others. Think about some of the character skills that make you who you are. Describe one of them and a time when you faced a challenge where that skill came in handy.
